These rules are the only document that bindingly and fully governs the rules of this Competition (hereinafter referred to as the “Competition Rules”). The aim of the Competition is to support and promote the Organiser's services and to help it succeed on the relevant market.

2. Time and place of the Competition

The Competition may be entered between 18 November 2022 and 22 November 2022 (including, i.e., until 11:59 p.m. on 22 November 2022) in the manner specified in Article III of these Competition Rules.

The Competition is to be held via the Internet, on the Facebook page of the Organiser:

The Organiser hereby declares that Facebook neither sponsors nor promotes this Competition and does not participate in it, nor does Facebook have any or all obligations to the Competition participants and Competition winners.

The Competition rules will be published on the Organiser's website at www.lab.online during the Competition and for 30 days after the end of the Competition.

3. Conditions for participation in and entry to the Competition

The Competition is open only to natural persons over 18 years of age having full legal capacity who provide the Organiser with their details in accordance with these Competition Rules (hereinafter referred to as the “Entrant” or “Competitor”).

To enter the competition, the Entrant must comment on the competition post on the Lab.online Facebook profile with the answer to the Organiser's competition question from the post published on the online platforms according to Article II of these Competition Rules. Each Entrant can enter the competition only once by answering the Competition question under the Organiser's competition post. If an Entrant posts more than once with the same or similar content, only 1 (one) post will be entered into the prize draw. The assessment of whether the Entrant's posts are the same or similar in terms of content falls within the exclusive competence of the Organiser.

Participation in the Competition automatically expires when the comment is deleted.

Persons who do not meet the conditions for participation in the Competition and/or who act in breach of the Competition Rules will not be entered into the Competition. If it turns out that such person falsely became a participant and/or winner of the Competition (e.g. as a result of providing false information), he/she may be disqualified from the Competition (eliminated) and shall not be entitled to the prize, which shall be forfeited to the Organiser without compensation. The Organiser further reserves the right to exclude a Competitor from the Competition, especially if it is suspected that the Competitor has participated, or that the Competition result has been achieved, fraudulently, via conduct contrary to the Competition Rules or contrary to good manners (regardless of whether it is the conduct of the Competitor or another person). Such decision by the Organiser is final and without the possibility to appeal.

Through proper participation in the competition and fulfilment of all the conditions of the Competition specified in these Competition Rules, a competitor may win the Competition's prize. The Organiser will announce 1 (one) winner with his/her comment on the Competition after the end of the Competition.

IV. Drawing of Competition winners and prizes

Each Competitor will be entered into a prize draw. A total of one (1) winner will be drawn from the total number of Entrants who have duly entered the Competition. The draw will be made by random selection on 23 November 2022 (hereinafter referred to as the "Draw"). The winners will be drawn by the Organiser of the Competition.

The Competition prize is: 1x Prevention for Men 40+ package for €59.30.

Three (3) alternates will also be drawn at random during the Draw in case the prize in the Competition is not given to the winner (both for reasons on the winner's side – e.g. the winner refuses the prize or the winner cannot be contacted, and for reasons on the Organiser's side – e.g. the Organiser excludes the winner from the Competition due to non-compliance with the terms and conditions of this Competition or due to the winner's violation of the Competition Rules). The alternates will be drawn in a binding order (the first alternate, the second alternate and the third alternate), in which they will take the place of the winner who has not been awarded the prize (from the first to the third alternate).

V. Prize notification and handover

Each winner will be notified of his/her prize in the Competition without any undue delay, not later than 14 days after the Draw, by means of a private message via Facebook sent by the Organiser. As part of the notification to the winner of the Competition prize, the winner shall also be invited to confirm his/her interest in claiming the prize in the Competition and, if applicable, to complete the personal data necessary for the handing over and claiming of the prize (e-mail, telephone contact or address) and to negotiate the specific terms and conditions for handing over, claiming and collecting the prize. The winner is obligated to confirm his/her interest in claiming the prize by means of a private message or by an e-mail sent and delivered to the Organiser's e-mail address announced to the winner as part of the notification of having won the Competition prize, not later than within three (3) calendar days of the date of notification under the first sentence of this clause. Should the winner fail to confirm his/her interest in claiming the prize within three (3) calendar days of the date of the Organiser's notification pursuant to the first sentence of this clause of the Competition Rules by means of a private message or by e-mail, or should they fail to complete the information necessary for the prize to be handed over and claimed and to negotiate the specific terms and conditions for the handing over, claiming and collection of the prize requested by the Organiser, the winner's entitlement to any prize in the Competition shall cease in its entirety and without compensation whatsoever and he/she shall be replaced by an alternate, in the appropriate order, who shall become the winner.

The prize will be handed over to the winner and collected under the terms and conditions agreed separately between the Customer and the winner. The winner is not entitled to claim any other consideration from the Organiser in lieu of the prize.

Should the prize not be delivered to the winner under the agreed conditions, the winner's right to receive and collect the prize shall cease in its entirety and without any compensation whatsoever. Likewise, if the winner cannot be contacted in order to arrange the delivery of the prize (e.g. cannot be contacted by telephone) after completing his/her contact details following notification of having won the prize, and not later than 1 (one) calendar day from the date of the first attempt to contact him/her, the winner's right to receive the prize shall cease in its entirety and be without any compensation whatsoever.

Handing over the Competition prize may be subject to proving that the conditions under these Competition Rules have been met, by presenting proof of identity for inspection (e.g. ID card) in order to verify the identity of the winner, as well as by he/she signing an acceptance protocol and/or other document regulating the handover, acceptance and collection of the prize, prepared and provided by the Competition Organiser. Taxation of the prize is governed by the provisions of the applicable legislation in the Slovak Republic, in particular Act No. 595/2003 Coll. on Income Tax, as amended. Prizes or awards (except as provided for in Act No. 595/2003 Coll.) are exempt from income tax if the value of the prize or award does not exceed EUR 350. The winner is responsible for paying the tax.

VI. Special provisions

The Competitors shall not be entitled to any benefits under and/or in connection with this Competition other than the benefits expressly set out in these Competition Rules, and the entitlement to such benefits shall only be subject to the fulfilment of all the conditions set out in these Competition Rules for such entitlement. The winner is not entitled to claim any further consideration beyond the prize expressly stated in these Competition Rules.

The Organiser reserves the right to amend or modify the Competition Rules at any time during the Competition, as well as the right to extend, shorten, postpone, suspend or cancel the Competition, even without giving any reason and/or without providing any compensation. If any changes are made to the Competition Rules, these changes will be made in the form of an addendum to these Competition Rules and will be published on the Customer's website at <https://sk.lab.online/statut-sutaze>. The changes shall take effect upon their publication in accordance with the preceding sentence, unless any later entry into effect is expressly stated.

The Organiser is not responsible for any technical problems in relation to the Competition, in particular problems with Facebook, or problems on the part of carriers, telephone operators or other entities. The Competitor agrees to provide his/her personal data for the above-mentioned purpose until receiving the information about the results of the Competition or the prize being handed over, however not later than 1 month after the end of the Competition. The Competitor's consent to the processing of his/her personal data according to the Competition Rules is voluntary and is not a condition for the provision of other services of the Organiser (e.g. sale of other services). Subject to compliance with the requirements laid down by the law, the data subject shall have (i) the right of access to his or her personal
